A prayer to St. Joseph, Defender of Life

Dearest St. Joseph,
At the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home.
As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child.

We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you.
May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life.

Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life—especially where it is most vulnerable or threatened.
Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things.
Amen.

“Wisdom is the clear, calm, accurate vision and comprehension of the whole course, the whole work of God; and though there is none who has it in its fulness but he who ‘searcheth all things, yea, the deep things’ of the Creator, yet by the Spirit they are in a measure revealed unto us.”

Cardinal Newman (19th cent)

Sunday, October 17 is World Mission Sunday. There will be a second collection at Masses that weekend, for the Propagation of the Faith.

THIS WEEK'S MESSAGE

“Jesus enjoins his disciples to prefer him to everything and everyone, and bids them ‘renounce all that [they have]’ for his sake and that of the Gospel. Shortly before his passion he gave them the example of the widow of Jerusalem who, out of her poverty, gave all that she had to live on. The precept of detachment from riches is obligatory for entrance into the Kingdom of Heaven.”

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2544)
